(E 12-Coastal Path/guide OTI) Paulilles Site - Elmes Beach/ Banyuls-sur-mer

Côte Vermeille

(Frédéric Hédelin)

The wild beauties of the Vermilion Coast !

This hike begins with the exploration of the classified Paulilles site: the Catalan boat workshop, the museum of the former Nobel dynamite factory, and the gardens with lush vegetation. Then you reach the cove, a sublime spot to join the coastal path that leads you through wild landscapes, all the way to Banyuls-sur-Mer.

⚠ Advices

The best part during the beautiful season: Bring a swimsuit, mask, and snorkel for a swim in the coves to observe the underwater wildlife.
You enjoy nature, you love it, take care of it…

You are hiking on a trail along which regular household waste collection points are at your disposal. Out of respect for this exceptional area, used by several tens of thousands of hikers and walkers each month, we invite you to deposit all your waste (glass, paper, food scraps, etc.) and any you may unfortunately discover during your walk at these collection points.

With these simple but essential actions, let’s keep this site clean, just as nature has graciously offered it to us.
