From Collioure to Port-Vendres through Fort Saint-Elme

Côte Vermeille

(Elisabeth Coste)

Bucolic gardens, schist stone walls, a mill, and a fort between Collioure and Port-Vendres, all accompanied by stunning views.

A family-friendly walk connecting the towns of Collioure and Port-Vendres, featuring remarkable points of interest and stunning sea views. The climb to Fort Saint-Elme takes you through the garrigue. Be sure to visit the Museum of Modern Art in Collioure.

Useful information

Practice : Hiking

Duration : 1 h 30

Length : 4.1 km

Trek ascent : 193 m

Difficulty : Easy

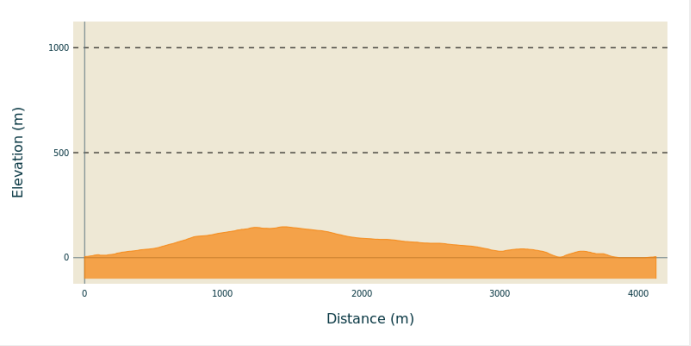

Type : Boucle

Themes : Flora, Point de vue, Architecture, Géologie, Histoire, Art, Littoral, Patrimoine

Trek

Departure : Museum of Modern Art of Collioure
Arrival : Museum of Modern Art of Collioure
Cities : 1. COLLIOURE
2. PORT-VENDRES

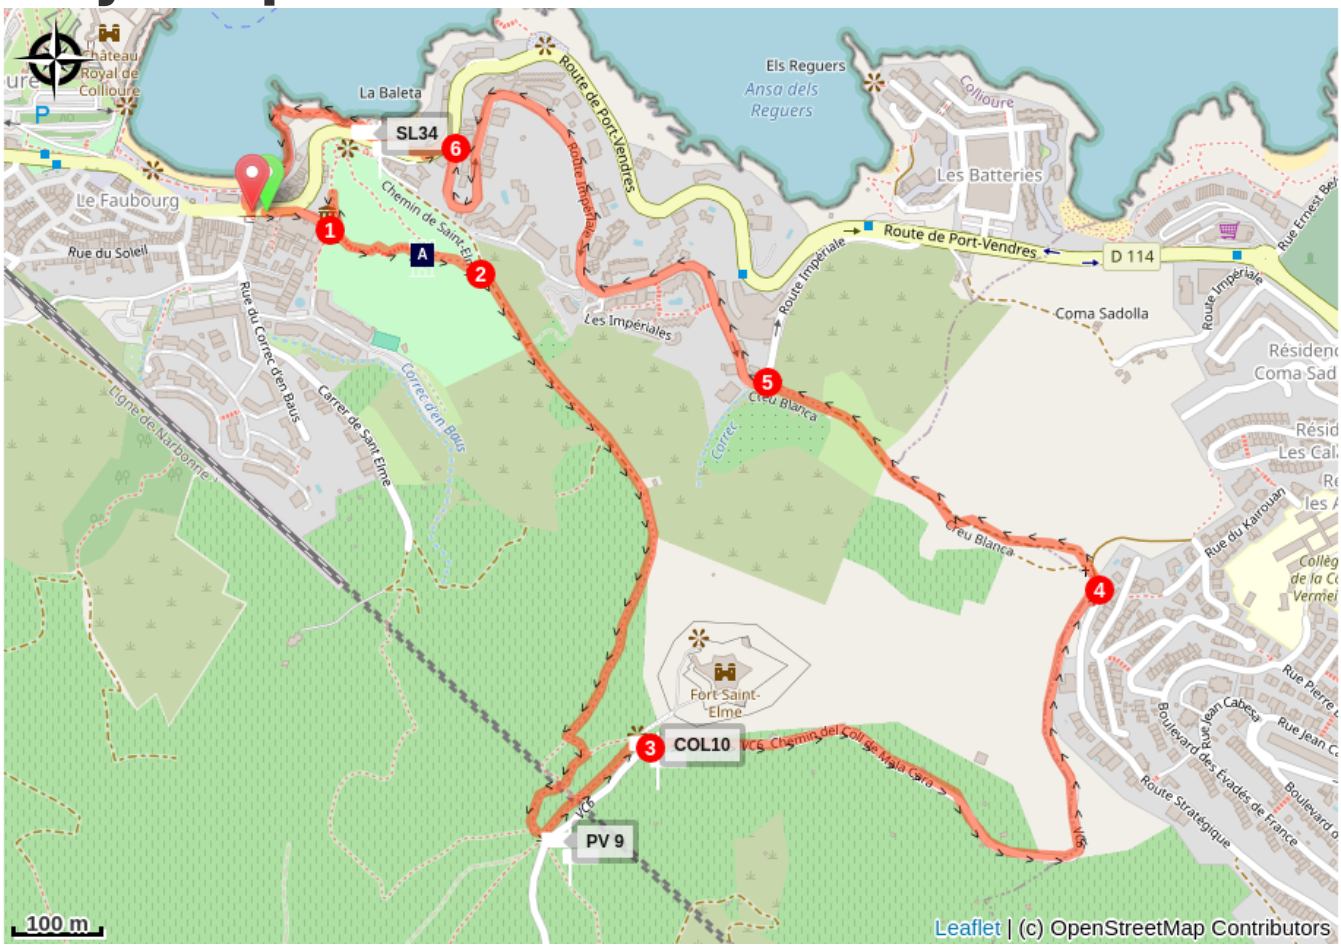

Altimetric profile

Min elevation 0 m Max elevation 147 m

1. Head towards the Museum of Modern Art, then follow the signs to Fort Saint-Elme. Don’t miss the stop at La Glorieta for its beautiful view of Collioure.
2. After the mill, take the steep path on the right. Turn left onto the small road called Chemin du Col de la Mala Cara.
3. At the white cross, turn left again towards Collioure. Keep to the left along the Route Impériale.
4. Cross the D114 and follow the signs for the coastal trail on the left.

On your path...

Collioure Mill (A)

All useful information

⚠ Advices

Bring water, good walking shoes, a cap or hat, and a windbreaker. Do not litter along the trail.

How to come ?

Transports

Bus 2€

Access

D114

Advised parking

Glacis Parking Lot

Environmental sensitive areas

Along your trek, you will go through sensitive areas related to the presence of a specific species or environment. In these areas, an appropriate behaviour allows to contribute to their preservation. For detailed information, specific forms are accessible for each area.

Zone Natura 2000 Directive Habitat

Sensitivity period:

Zone Natura 2000 Directive Oiseaux

On your path...

Collioure Mill (A)

This windmill is quite rare in the area, most of which are water mills. It ceases its activity in the nineteenth century and gradually turns into ruins. Perfectly restored in a traditional way by the municipality in 2001, it is now in working order for the elaboration of Collioure olive oil. Near the city, it is a perfect destination for a nice little walk.

Attribution : CCACVI