

(E 12 - GR 92) Colera - Portbou

Côte Vermeille

(OT Llançà)

Walks between Franco bunkers, dry stone walls and protected natural spaces offering a spectacular panoramic view

Itinerary with dry stone walls and protected natural areas

Useful information

Practice : Hiking

Duration : 1 h 45

Length : 3.8 km

Trek ascent : 256 m

Difficulty : Medium

Type : Traversée

Themes : Point de vue

Trek

Departure : City hall of Colera

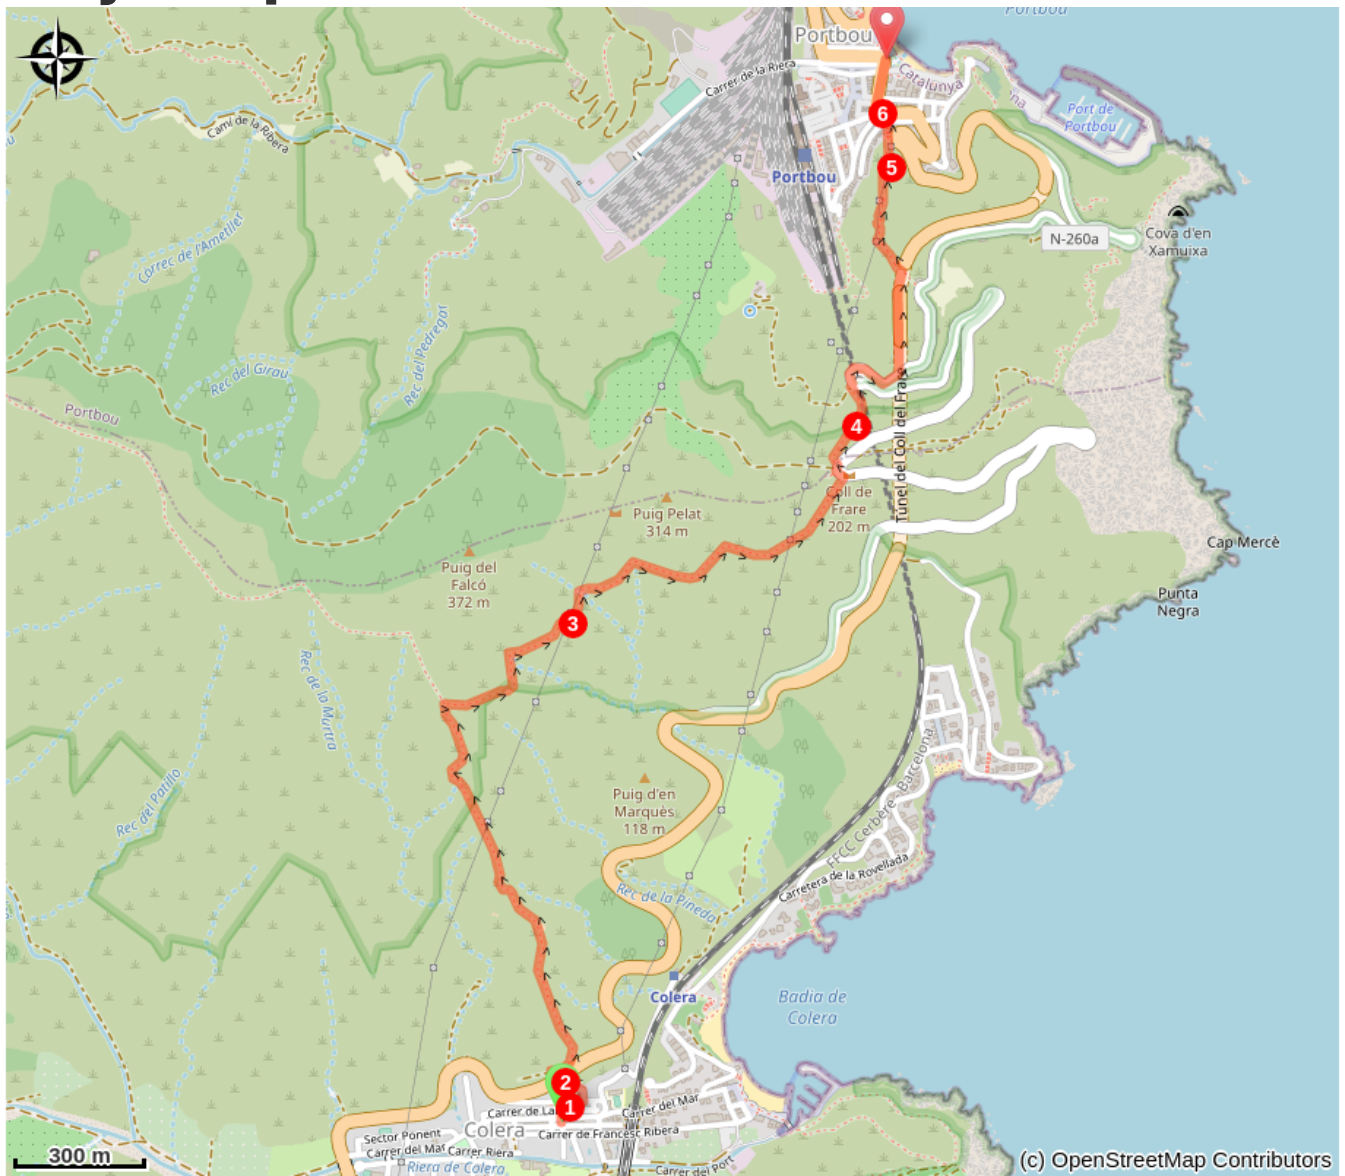

Arrival : Tourist Office of Portbou

Markings :  GR

From Colera town hall, turn left and climb the stairs to the end of rue de l'Eglise, turn right and continue to N-260.

1. Cross the N-260 and go up to the side of the water tank where the GR-92 starts. Follow the path that leads to the ridge from where you can admire a magnificent view of Colera Bay and all of its beaches.
2. In front of Puig Falcó, follow the path on the right to Coll del Frare which overlooks Colera and Portbou.
3. Go down the road following the ridge until you find the road. Then continue for about 400 m along the road leading to Tonicus.
4. Continue along the path to the town of Portbou.
5. Go down the stairs and continue along rue Alcalde Miquel Cabré to the Tourist Office.

On your path...

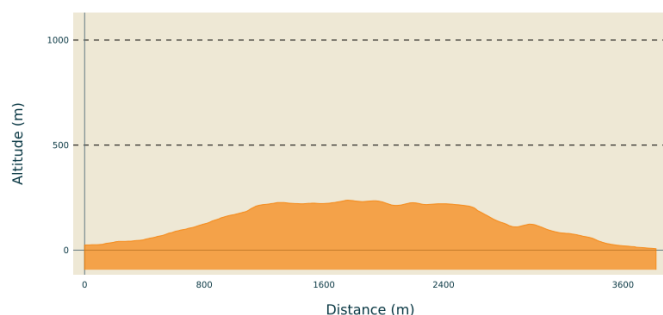

All useful information

Advices

Excursion for everyone. There's a lot of wind. Hiking not recommended on busy days.

Altimetric profile

Min elevation 7 m
Max elevation 238 m

Transports

www.sarfa.es www.renfe.com

Access

Access by train, R11 lines and N-260 road. www.sarfa.es www.renfe.com

Advised parking

It is recommended to park on the market or in the Passeig Marítim car park.